After Hours

Band: John Frusciante
Song: After Hours
Cover song by Velvet Underground

A cool song played by John Frusciante and Anthony Kiedis
I found these chords on jftab.com (tabbed by M Rohr) and I think it is a fine way to play this song! Have fun playing

A Better and Easier way to play the song is to drop tuning on the strings to D-G-C-F-A-D, and play

    C                A7           Dminor               G
if ya colse the door the night could last forever

    C                A7            Dminor          G
let the sun shine out and say hello to never

             C                                                    C7
All the people are laughin and they re havin such fun

  F                                        Fminor
I wish it could happen to Meeeeeeeeeeeee.

               C              A7        Dm                 G
