(INTRO)

F C G3 Am G7/B C

(VERSE)

F C G3 Am G7/B C
I found it on the sidewalk last night

F C G3
a coffin made of ivory

Am G7/B C
with its lid pushed aside

F C G3 Am G7/B C
As I was getting closer looking down

F C G3
covered up in purple plastic balls

Am G7/B C
it was you that I found

F C G3
Before I had a chance to

Am G7/B C
reach down and give my hand to you

F C G3
like a champagne cork you got up

Am G7/B C
and disappeared

(CHORUS)

F C G3 Am
Oh uhhh uhhh uhh. Oh Seraphina

        G7/B           C
here is peace to your soul

F         C    G3                      Am   G7/B C
   a lightyear gone, but not letting go

(VERSE)
Then I was at your funeral with my best friend at a dive bar in your neighbourhood where all good things come to an end he told me over and over again it might be hard to understand but don t mourn the dead celebrate the life they gave

(BRIDGE)
A#            Dm                    C    Em
   isn t it a shame that we have to go away

A#                          Dm                C              Em
    when there is still so much that we never got to say?

A#                Dm                  C    Em
   wouldn t it be nice if we could conti--nue

A#                    Dm              C    Em
   to the end of the universe and beyo----nd?

(CHORUS)
Oh uhhh uhhh uhh. Oh Seraphina
here is peace to your soul
a lightyear gone
but not letting go
put that shuttle in reverse
