```
                        Ebm                C#
You re always up to no good
     G#
your finger s in my cookie jar
                Ebm                     C#
you can have my checkbook, visa and my mastercard too
         G# ain t no price too high for what you do

              Ebm   C#
You could be my dog
                  G#
I would post your bailbonds when cash was tight

               Ebm  C#
We could fall in love
                G#
I could be the apple of your eye

Let s do it right now

B                              F#
My new favourite thing to do
   C#                     Ebm
is wasting my time on a bum like you
B                              F#
My new favourite thing to do
   C#                     Ebm
is wasting my time on a bum like you
