Intro: E C D/F# x2

Verse 1:

```
          Em
There are many prodigal sons
          C
On our city streets they run
              D/F#
Searching for shelter
          Em
There are homes broken down
          C
Peopleâ€™s hopes have fallen to the ground
     D/F#
From failures
       C
This is an emergency!
```

CHORUS:

```
           C
There are tears from the saints
 G       D/F#
For the lost and unsaved
                       Em
Weâ€™re crying for them come back home
                       C
Weâ€™re crying for them come back home
                C/G
And all your children will stretch out their hands
         G
And pick up the crippled man
                 Em
Father, we will lead them home
                  C          D/F#
Father, we will lead them ho-me
```

Verse 2:

```
            Em
There are schools full of hatred
        C
Even churches have forsaken
          D/F#
Love and mercy
        Em
May we see this generation
          C
In itâ€™s state of desperation
    D/F#
For Your glory

CHORUS:
           C
There are tears from the saints
 G       D/F#
For the lost and unsaved
                      Em
Weâ€™re crying for them come back home
                      C
Weâ€™re crying for them come back home
                C/G
And all your children will stretch out their hands
         G
And pick up the crippled man
                 Em
Father, we will lead them home
                  C          D/F#    C      G
Father, we will lead them ho-me
