```
 Am       C/B   C        C/B
Call, never to come back
 Am                      C/B   C
Ghosts don t notice when your gone.
 Am           C/B   C        C/B
Fall, then we can wonder why
 Am                  C/B   C
We ve spent to long tranquillised

     F           C
Out here in the rain,
            G                    Am
Where the sparks don t lead to flames
 F           C             G
Here where fusion tears apart
                    Am     C/B       C           C/B
They tell you that well, another circuits blown
    Am                  C/B   C
But we only notice when they go.
```

```
           F         C
But your eyes never rise,
            G          Am
We do whatever passes time
  F           C                G
Then we go looking when it s lost.

You can t carry on but you won t let it go

  F          C                  G          Am
Whether you know its wrong or Whether you know its right
   F             C              G
You never could find yourself alive.
                     Am                F         C
Like a kiss from a burning sun to a sea of magnesium
 G             Am                  F
It never will let you feel alive.

Am             C/B     C             C/B
Now, alone with your bloodshot soul,
        Am                  C/B  C      C/B
You can hear your shotgun heart reload.
Am                       C/B   C     C/B
Though, you remember the best times
Am                    C/B     C
And only notice when they re gone.

           F         C
But your eyes never rise,
            G          Am
We do whatever passes time
  F           C                G
Then we go looking when it s lost.

You can t carry on but you won t let it go

  F          C                  G          Am
Whether you know its wrong or Whether you know its right
   F             C              G
You never could find yourself alive.
                     Am                F         C
Like a kiss from a burning sun to a sea of magnesium
 G             Am
It never will let you feel alive.
```

     F                    C         G           Am
The scars on the palest skin are keeping the starlight in,

F, C, G, Am

                F   C              G     Am
You never will hold on the lonely people
                F   C              G     Am
You never will hold on the lonely people

F, C, G, Am

         F            C   G                      Am
Yeah we try, yeah we try, you can look but you never will find
      F              C       G                Am
Yeah you know, yeah you know all the faces at your window,
     F        C       G       Am         F         C       G     Am
But now your skin is wearing thin, the ghost will hold us all within.

F, C, G, Am
