WARDROBE - Lemuria

Tabbed by: Mean Mr Mustard

This song is short and very simple, so I figured I would try to get the chords down. I might do more Lemuria songs in the future, I love this band.

Tuning: Standard

```
B                        G#m                  E
I found the pack of cigarettes that you were always quitting
B                  G#m                E
You always leave a mess purging your pockets in the laundry
B                                     G#m           E
All your clothes were donated because none of them fit me
F#  G#m       E
My legs are too long

B                      G#m           E
The thrift store is so cold and the service is lousy
B                                  G#m          E
I want to punch the clerk s lights out as he accepts the shirt
B                                            G#m         E
That was a present and the first time that i ever spent money
F#     G#m    E      F#              E
I was two or three counting on my fingers
(E)                F#     (B)
I should ve bought you a drink

B     G#m   E     x2
F#      E

B                      G#m          E
The events move faster  than i can show my anger
B                        G#m       E
I want to practice my contempt to not be pushed over
B                        G#m      E
I tell your story like a thrifty book
F#        G#m        E        F#       E                  F#
With the previous owner who highlighted the parts they liked the most.
