D D7m D9 D D D7m D9 D
It might take too long to turn the lights back on
G D D7m D9 D
I guess I lay awake, I guess I lay here and break
D D D7m D9 D D D7m D9 D
Could you pour me one more drink? A glass of gasoline
G D D7m D9 D
Help me burn my pain, light me up in the rain
A G
My so-called life is so good
D D/E G D D/E G
Why do we die?
D D/E G D D/E G
Why do we die?
D D7m D9 D
Slow down

You wonder how I ve been, you ain t been checking in
Just hope my vital signs will send me home again
My baby s in the grass, Jesus I m a dad
I drive myself insane just hoping I can stay
My so-called life is so good

D5 D9/E G5 D5 D9/E G5
Why do we die?
D5 D9/E G5 D5 D9/E G5
Why do we die?
(A5 G5)
Slow down
(A5 G5)
Slow down, slow down, slow down

(A5 G5)
When deserts turn into floods, water gets covered with mud
No magic coffin today, not today
Who takes the race when I m gone and celebrates from my throne?
No magic coffin today, not today

Why do we die?
Why do we die?
Why do we die?
Why do we die?
