[Verse 1]

                Fmaj7
Tom was born in 1942

With eyes of blue
                                                C  C*  C  C*  C
And the doctors said that his birth was far too fast

    Fmaj7
His heart stopped twice

But yet he survived

As he took his first breathe
                     C  C*  C  C*  C
His mother took her last

        Fmaj7
And his father knew that he wasnâ€™t to blame
                                                C  C*  C  C*  C
But he never quite looked at Tom the same after that

       F
And he rarely spoke about her
             G
But when he did
                                C  C*  C  C*  C
He said your mother used to say this

[Hook]
         Fmaj7
When the skies are looking bad my dear

And your heart has lost all itâ€™s hope
      Fmaj7
After dawn there will be sunshine

And all the dust will go
C
Skies will clear my darling
             C
Iâ€™ll wake up with the one I love the most Fmaj7                 G*
And in the morning, Iâ€™ll make you up
                 C  C*  C  C*  C
some tea and toast

[Verse 2]
        Fmaj7
When they met through a friend

Who introduced them
                                                C  C*  C  C*  C
The first thing Tom said was would you like to dance?
     Fmaj7
They moved with each other and when the music got slower
                           C  C*  C  C*  C
He said donâ€™t let go of my hand
             Fmaj7
He said Itâ€™s only polite if I ask you tonight
                                            C  C*  C  C*  C
Would it be alright, if I could walk you home?
              Fmaj7
That night he told her of his birth

And said when it hurt
   G                                                C  C*  C  C*  C
He thought about what his mother said about tea and toast

Fmaj7
Two quick years went by
                  G*
They were side by side
    Fmaj7                                   G*
And without a plan, they conceived a little child

        Fmaj7
He said women I love you and this you know
      G*
But I only have enough for our food and clothes
      Amin
But I love you and this baby

Until the day that I die
         Fmaj7
She said weâ€™ll take care of this little life
          G*
And weâ€™ll fall in love with her baby blue eyes
    Amin
And weâ€™ll be alright from some advice that I know
         Fmaj7
She said I never got to meet her
    G*                                            C  C*  C  C*  C
But if I did, Iâ€™m sure your mother would have said this

[Hook]
         Fmaj7
When the skies are looking bad my dear

And your heart has lost all itâ€™s hope
      Fmaj7
After dawn there will be sunshine

And all the dust will go
C
Skies will clear my darling
             C
We ll show this baby all the love we know
           Fmaj7                  G*
And in the morning, Iâ€™ll make you up
                 C  C*  C  C*  C
some tea and toast

[Verse 3]
        Fmaj7
Well he took those words and he made them proud
          G*
He worked day after day and hour after hour
        Amin
So that they could buy a little house on the outside of town
Fmaj7
The little girl grew up and so did they
          G*
They said that they loved each other everyday
    Amin
And forty years later, that brings us to now
                Fmaj7
And as theyâ€™re walking down the street her grip loosens on his hand
            G*

He puts his arm around her side as she falls to the ground
G#min
He hears her breathing and that s the only sound
Fmaj7
Her body on the floor attracts a worried crowd
G* Amin
Tears rolls off his face as he says â€œdonâ€™t let go, nowâ€•
Fmaj7
And heâ€™s sitting by her bed in the hospital
G* Amin
Their daughter walks in with a family of her own
Fmaj7
She says â€œdad, I donâ€™t know if she can hear you now
G* Amin
but thereâ€™s one thing mum would want you to knowâ€•
Fmaj7

[Hook]
When the skies are looking bad my dear

And your heart has lost all itâ€™s hope
Fmaj7
After dawn there will be sunshine
And all the dust will go
C
Skies will clear my darling
C
Now it s time for you to let go
Fmaj7 G
And in the morning, Iâ€™ll make you up

With some tea and toast
