It will come to us as a shock but we re letting it happen people with their carelessness governments with their laisser-faire are going to lead us straight into it that s for sure history will only repeat itself once more the western world is going more and more right wing yearning for some sort of protection, too scared to do anythng not to take the path that s dragging us down, oh no remember it s in our power not to go down I can feel it more and more within ten years we ll have a war
