Have You Got Heart
Luke Leighfield

Hopefully this will prove useful to any Luke fans out there, I was annoyed when I didn t see that there was a single tab of his up so I worked this out and posted it, enjoy playing!!

Capo 3

Intro
G C G D x4

Verse

```
G              C            G               D
Here s my expectations, now throw them all away
    G           C          G              D
Iâ€™m sick of mediocrity and playing stupid games
           Em                C               D               A
Youâ€™re all liars, youâ€™re all fakes, and itâ€™s more than I can take
          Am                    D             G
Pack your bags, weâ€™re going to find somewhere new

G                    C             G           D
Iâ€™m bored of getting drunk now, it only took a year
        G              C               G              D
Kissing indie girls in dingy clubs was never a smart idea
  Em                     C               D                   A
University has taught me nothing that I couldnâ€™t read on wikipedia
    Am                D              G
Iâ€™m feeling like itâ€™s nearly time to go

Chorus

             G                   C
Have you got heart? Have you got soul?
             Am          D
Have you got anything at all?
            G                   C
Do you know passion? Do you know pain?
                 Am              D
Have you got the courage to try again?
                      G                            C
Are you in it for the money? Are you in it for the love?
            Am                  D
Do you know what youâ€™re dreaming of?
           Em             D            C         D
â€˜Cause the end is getting nearer every day

G C G D x2

G C G D
Looks mean more than talent, and talentâ€™s getting scarce
G C G D
My friends are still starving, weâ€™re looking worse for wear
Em C D A
And if justice will prevail, well go on and do it now
Am D G
â€˜Cause Iâ€™m scared weâ€™re gonna give up the fight

Chorus and instrumentals follow for the remainder of the song, happy strummin :D
