VERSE 1
```
Eb                        C#
It seems so easy in the light of day,
Eb                        C#                  G#
And when we re there it always feels okay, but then again
Eb                       C#
I m so alone when I am by myself
Eb                        C#             G#
And can I ever count on someone else? And then you say
```

This kind of thing keeps me awake at night
Eb                         C#                  G#
It gets so I can t sleep without the light, and then again

I wonder what I m really wondering for
Eb                       C#                   G#
 Cause where we`d be I never felt so sure, and so you say
```
