Tommorrow
Matthew Sweet

Tomorrow by Matthew Sweet

Please send corrections to stardood@hotmail.com
Thanks, GaryV

```
           C           C/B              Am
So you re looking for a way to set the seasons
Hoping for a chance to do it over
And even thought you say that it s all over
Even if I know you ll never know me
Am7/G      D                                   G
I already tried to stop the clock and turn back time
It s already clear to me I shouldn t even try         (Chorus1)
You are still around to hear the words as they go by
I still understand that there s a difference if I lie  (Chorus2)

Chorus
C                  F       Em               Am  Am7/G
Don t you have to wonder, what life has in store for
Don t you have to wonder, what life has in store for
F              G           F
Tomorrow you ll be,   for tomorrow you ll  be  [C] free
Tomorrow you ll be,   for tomorrow you ll  [G] be, For [F] tomorrow you ll be [Am] free  (Bridge / End)

Bridge - End
                            Am7/G    F
You re not alone without a name
                                Em              Am             F    G
But you re alone if you can t,  feel the others pain , such a shame

C  C/B  Am  Am7/G  D  G  (2x)

C                  F       Em                Am  Am7/G
Don t you have to wonder, what life has in store for
F               G (3x)        F                   C   C/B   Am  Am7/G
tomorrow you ll be ,      For tomorrow you ll be free
       D   F                     C       C/B             Am       Am7/G
Cause tomorrow you ll be free, (must be something you can keep on loving)
(Repeat)
```