             C               G
The best two years, the best two years.
C                        G                 D                        G
Going to the land of the tulips, where I m gonna make the best two years.

F            C
May not be a looker,
      G
and I may not know that much,
    F             C
but I will have a book or two,
   G
of Mormons wrote in Dutch.
    F            C
And I may not be kissing the one,
      G
Who s gonna be my wife.
    A
But my two lips will thank the Lord,
        D
For the best two years, of my whole life.

G                                  C              G
Ringing lots of doorbells, I ll be talking in the street,
G                                          D
I ll be preaching with the spirit, to every single person that I meet,
G
Sometimes I get frightened,
    C                 G
but that feeling disappears.
C                       G               D                        G
Here in the land of the tulips, I ll be knocking out my best two years...
D                        G
Knocking out my best two years,
D                        G
Knocking out my best two years.

             C               G
The best two years, the best two years.
     D                        G
Yes, I ll be testifying in my very best suit from Sears,
             C               G
The best two years, the best two years.
C                        G                 D                        G
Going to the land of the tulips, where I m gonna make the best two years.
D                       G
Turning out my best two years,
D                        G
Knocking out my best two years!
