

Landin in london

3 Doors Down

Em C#
I woke up today in London
Bbm Em
As the plane was touching down
C#
And all I could think about was monday
Bbm Em
And maybe ill be back around

C#
If this keeps me away much longer
D# Em
I dont know what i will do
C#

Youve got to understand its a hard life
D# Em
That im going through

C#
And when the night falls in around me
Bbm Em
I dont think ill make it through
C#
Ill use your light to guide the way
D# Em
Cause all I think about is you

C#
Well L.A is getting kinda crazy
Bbm Em
And New york is getting kinda cold
C#
I keep my head from geting lazy
Bbm Em
I just cant wait to get back home

C#
And all these days i spend away
Bbm Em
Ill make up for this i swear
C#
I need your love to hold me up
D# Em
When its all too much to bear

C#

And when the night falls in around me

Bbm Em

I dont think ill make it through

C#

Ill use your light to guide the way

D# Em

Cause all I think about is you

C#

And all these days i spend away

Bbm Em

Ill make up for this i swear

C#

I need your love to hold me up

D# Em

When its all too much to bear

C#

And when the night falls in around me

Bbm Em

I dont think ill make it through

C#

Ill use your light to guide the way

D# Em

Cause all I think about is you
