E
A few years ago there lived a lover

by the name of Jimmy Jones..

who really snowed the girls and left them cold,

and gained the title of The Great Snowman.

CHORUS:
E A E
I remember the day, when the snow melted away.
B B7
And the Great Snowman was wed.
E B
He said, yes, I do..
E A
and little Linda said it too, E B E B
and the Great Snowman was we..eh..eh..ed.
E
we..eh..eh..wed.

E
Now, Jimmy Jones was the Snowman s name,
B
he put all the other local lovers to shame.
B7
He had good looks and a big fine car,
B E
And went around breaking all the girlie s hearts.
E7
Until one day the Great Snowman found,
A
Linda Lou, who started melting him down..
F#
He bought a ring and they set the day
B B7 B
and the Great Snowman started melting away.

CHORUS:

Now, the Great Snowman and his loving spouse,
                         B
live in a little sub-division house.
     B7
They got six kids and his mother-in-law,
      B                      E
and expecting another kiddie in the Fall.
    E7
His old Cadillac needs the paint retouched,
it s full of baby diapers and bottles and such,
    F#                          B              B7    B
the Great Snowman has outgrown..all his flashy Caddy clothes.

CHORUS:

A sixties smash from Kraziekhat.
