D                      A      D
Light a fire in my lonely heart,
                           A     D
please oh girl give our love a start,
                 A       D
we were born to share a love,
                    A     D
you were sent from heaven above -
    G     A      D        G
you were sent to help me through,
  A         G       A       D
all life s battles old and new.

D                       A      D
I ve been waiting for you to come,
                                A      D
to help our love grow while we are young,
G     A               D     G
in a past life we ve loved before,
     A   G             A        D
I knew you d come my heart was sure.

     A        D             A                D
Cos loves an emotion, that lives on through time,
    A         D          A              D
and it was destined that you would be mine.

    D                        A         D
If you donâ€™t believe me just look in my eyes,
                        A            D
if you re unsure then look to the skies,
   G     A       D       G
we were born to share a love,
   A       G          A      D
you were sent from heaven above.

     A        D             A                D
Cos loves an emotion, that lives on through time,
    A         D          A              D
and it was destined that you would be mine.
