Graham Pratt - Hazel Eyes
Misc Unsigned Bands

Hazel eyes c. Graham Pratt 1987.

```
C+                                  C
It was in the middle of the night, first time I held you tight
    G               F            C
you came to me in a dream that I had.
C+                           C
I remember seeing your face, oh how my heart raced,
       G               F            C
when I held you in the night, in my dreams.

G             F                       G
Hazel eyes, I can t get you out of my mind
                   F                          C
Hazel eyes, you re part of my dreams all the time.

C+                            C
And now I wish you were here, so you wouldn t disappear
         G                  F                   C
when the morning brings the dawn, I find you re gone.

C+                           C
I want to hold you for real, to end my sleepless ordeal
        G           F                 C
but for now I ll be contented with my dreams.

G             F                       G
Hazel eyes, I can t get you out of my mind
                   F                          C
Hazel eyes, you re part of my dreams all the time.

G             F                       G
Hazel eyes, I can t get you out of my mind
                   F                          C
Hazel eyes, you re part of my dreams all the time.

       F                 C       F
you re part of my dreams all the time
C       F     C       F
all the time, all the time.
```