Verse:

         G                   D
The mailmanâ€™s here and heâ€™s looking good
         F#m                 C#m
Does he have some mail for me
          G                     D
With his bouffant hair and his dreamy eyes
        F#m                    C#m
I canâ€™t help but to sigh and stare
      G                 D
I put on a stamp on an envelope
      F#m              C#m
And address it to myself
         G                D

Iâ€™ll do anything just for him to come
       F#m                C#m
I just want to speak to him

Chorus:
    G          Bm
Hey mister
        F#m        C#m
What is your name
      G         Bm
Is it Jean Paul
     F#m           C#m
Or James Dean
             G      Bm
Cause youâ€™re so dreamy
        F#m     C#m
That is not funny
       G        Bm     A*
Youâ€™re too good to be true

Verse2:
     G                       D
The mailmanâ€™s here and heâ€™s looking good
         F#m             C#m
Does he want to come inside
        G                       D
Cause I have some tea and some biscuits too
          F#m                  C#m
Would you like to seat for awhile
            G                     D
I wouldnâ€™t  pressure him ask for his number
          F#m         C#m
Cause Iâ€™m too shy anyway
        G                      D
Oh Iâ€™ll be so good Iâ€™ll just seat right there
     F#m             C#m
And stare into his eyes

Chorus(End):
    G       Bm
Hey mister
        F#m        C#m
What is your name
        G           Bm
Is it Jean Paul
     F#m           C#m        G
or James Dean
