If you are a beginner you can also play the regular chords:

Asus2 002200, E 022100, A 002220, E 022100

play it til the end and then strum only Asus2 for that Staccato sound!

As an outro you could play the intro and end on G strum.

I know this is not the way Marcus Smaller plays it, but it is accurate and it s easier play than what I have seen so far.

Do not forget to rate + comment + add me. :)

For the strumming pattern or the dead notes/drum part watch my video.
