

Weight Of A Man
30 Odd Foot of Grunts

From Russel Crowe s new CD, My Hand my Heart. <http://www.myhandmyheart.com/>

My first tab but I m really confident. Hope you all enjoy as much as I do.

D          G
This could be heavy,
          D          A
not as easy,as it seems.
          D          G
Quite tough to carry,
a lot more inside,that no-one has seen.

Bm          A
But you lying there,
you re not one bit scared,
          D
to shoulder,
          A
a burden like me.

D                          G
So don t close your eyes,
turn your face to the skies,
          D                          A          Asus
and breath me as deep as you can.
Your strong heart won t break,
          D          G          A
are you ready to take,
          D          G          D          A
the weight of a man.

D                          G
I m so hard to handle,
my life s a suitcase that s never been closed.
          D                          G
Don t know how you stand me,
or how you love me,
god only knows.

Bm A
There s ghosts and there s witches,
D G
there s black eyes and stitches.

D
They come with me,
A Asus
it s part of the show.

D G
So don t close your eyes,
D G
turn your face to the skies,
and breath me as deep as you can.

Bm A
Your strong heart won t break,
D G A
are you ready to take,
D G
the weight of a man.
D A
the weight of a man.

G D
suspended on air,
Bm G
because you re lying there.
D A Asus
you shift me slightly and find inspiration.
G D
Cause those witches and ghosts,
Bm G
play some havoc with their host,
you make me lighter,
G A Asus A
you re my salva-tion.
