Acordesweb.com

A crying diamond
Mon Laferte

Bº: x2323x
Bb7+/C: x3323x

Intro: Dm (A) Dm (A) C (A) Dm

```
Dm
Love cannot be a sin
                        C
Says a forty-year-old guy
                                Dm
While rubbing in between the legs
Of a thirteen-year-old girl
She wears tacky dresses
                        C
And dreams of being a famous singer
                  Dm
But she barely has enough to eat

 Bº       A7                Dm
 God has chosen you, that s why we are together
Bº         A7               Dm
I will be your savior and I will make you a superstar
Bº      A7                Dm
He says while he fucks her in an alley at night
Bº         Bb7+/C             Gm
She doesn t know yet, she s a gem
      F                   A7
The brightest diamond in town

Dm
Five years have passed
And she cries every day
     C
Her dreams fade
                          Dm
And she no longer believes in God
He killed the last drop of
                   C
Her happiness and took all of her youth
              Dm
And that makes him feel good
Bº   A7           Dm
He knows that God understands him
Bº   A7        Dm
Because God is also a man
Bº   A7        Dm
Because God is also a man
```

Bº Bb7+/C Gm
And the motherfucker knows, she s a gem
F A7
The brightest diamond in town

Vocal sobre intro:
Bº A7 Dm
She never told anyone because she was afraid
Bº A7 Dm
No one was going to believe a small town girl who went
Bº A7 Dm
Out at night with her shiny dress and broken shoes
Bº Bb7+/C Gm
She doesn t know yet, she s a gem
F A7
The brightest diamond in town

Primero en #AcordesWeb.com