Tuning: normal

This is extremely simple. Only four chords make up the entire song.

F, F(moved up), Bb, G#

E* (for simplicity we ll call this E*)

F|-0-|
C|-0-|
G#|-3-|
Eb|-4-|
Bb|-4-|
F|-0-|

F                 F*                              F
I m visiting, the grounds a little weathered where I stood
F*                        Bb
Right field in my neighborhood
      G#                  Bb
I was mostly last always least
-NC-
Dig it

F     F*               F
   At graduation everyone
     F*                       Bb
will throw their hats into the sun
            G#                      Bb
but they ll drop like flies to the sea
        G#             F    F*  F  F*
this is not my cup of tea

    F                F*     F
its not, its not my cup of tea

F                F*                          F
and Valerie, the winter won t be keeping her around
    F*                    Bb
I m nailing leaves to the ground
       G#                    Bb
but it feels like sand underneath (n/c)

dig it.

F        F*                  F
   she s never letting me forget
     F*              Bb
I ve always been a idiot
       G#                   Bb
but at times like this I agree
         G#             F    F*  F  F*
this is not my cup of tea

    F                F*     F
its not, its not my cup of tea

Bb           G#                       Bb
Crash, in a wrinkle of steel we are gone
     G#                   Bb
will my last breath be a yawn
G#                       Bb
watching them sorting debris
         G#            Bb

its not, its not my cup of tea.....

(You can listen to the song yourself and figure out the exacts of the chorus. you get the idea here, I m sure.)
