All Things New Again by The Wallflowers words and music by Jakob Dylan

Intro: G Em D G

G                           Em        D   G
New heaven over a brand new sky
                             Em        D   G
New breed of wonder on the vine
C
Among the living
G                             D
There is new promise in this night

G                            Em         D   G
New arms to hold back the revolution
                                Em        D  G
New eyes to recognize what you ve become
C
New blood to recover
G                             B
A new will to honor all God s creations

C          D        Em
All things are new again
Within and without
C         D          G
All things are new again

New shepherd roaming through the tall grass
A new temple rising through the falling ash
That buries the tracks
Of millions of boots marching in packs

Clearwater rolling through the dam s collapse
Out to the harbor where they re sailing back
New flag on the mast
Without any secrets, without any past

All things are new again
Within and without
Sooner or later the ending begins
Just then it can be said that all things are new again

G                           Em
New ghost returning to the earth beneath the haze
G                               C

New poets burning through the lines of every page
C B D
I m an unpainted portrait
C B D
I am staring at a new sunset
B
Without any memories yet

All things are new again
Within and without
Sooner or later the ending begins
Just then it can be said that all things are new again
Within and without
Sooner or later every season ends
Then forever it can be said that all things are new again
