The Last of the Secret Agents

E          D                E
He s never caught one spy untold
           D             E
He s never even caught a cold
A                          E
Got his degree from Disney Land
              B7                  A                  E
But he s the last of the secret agents and he s my man

He s an underwhelming kind of sleuth
He thinks James Bond is some kind of suit
He s farther back than also ran
But he s the last of the secret agents and he s my man

He d come in third in a two-horse race
I ve never had to slap his face
But people try to understand
He s the last of the secret agents and he s my man
