In Your Hands
Thrice

B                   F#
bound to this couch, i lie in waiting G#m                 E
watching wind blown memories slip by my window sill
  B                 F#
i can t fall asleep, voice in my head disturbs me G#m                     E                              G#m,F# waking nightmares keep, have my cries fallen on deaf ears E       Em(let it ring)
can you hear me or am i....
B                                 G#m
talking to myself again, is there anybody listening E                     Em
are you taking this in, am i wasting my breath
     B                                   F#
tell me, is the wind in your sails worth everything you give G#m                     F# are you looking for something, forgiveness
  E              F#                 B            G#m i leave it up to you, i guess i m better off removed E                       Em because the situtations growing too thick, B
in your hands
      B
could it have been something i said, G#m
or was it something that i did E                       Em
did i ruin my chance, have you written me off
     B
tell me where did i cross the line,
        F#
and can i work my way back this time
       G#m                  F#
will i always regret this decision
  E              F#
i leave it up to you,
           B             G#m
i hope you find a good excuse because F#                          E i ve given about all that i can give,
in your hands

solo -B,Ebm-SLIP IN TO Eb,G#m E

        B                      G#m
are you taking this in, am i wasting my breath
      E                        F#
did i ruin my chance, have you written me off
B                                     G#m i could try to count the times that i ve been through this in my mind, E                             Em                       B
but i m running out of fingers and i don t have that much time

-the last two chords can go, F,G,C,Fm play it in a tuning where you can sing it
