The Lion And The Wolf
Thrice

G#m C#m Eb7 G#m
The lion s outside of your door, the wolf s in your bed.
G#m C#m Eb7 G#m
The lion s claws are sharpened for war, the wolf s teeth are red.
C#m B Em G#m
What a monstrous sight he makes mocking man s best friend.
C#m B Em Eb7
Both the wolf and lion crave the same thing in the end.
G#m C#m Eb7 G#m
The lion s outside of your door, the wolf s in your bed.

Repeat for interlude and second verse.

G#m C#m Eb7 G#m
The wolf he howls, the lion does roar the wolf lets him in.
G#m C#m Eb7 G#m
The lion runs in through the door, the real fun begins.
C#m B Em G#m
A stable thrash upon you will rip open your flesh.
C#m B Em Eb7
The lion eats his fill and then the wolf cleans up the mess.
G#m C#m Eb7 G#m
The lion s outside of your door, the wolf s in your bed.
G#m C#m Eb7 G#m
The lion s outside of your door, the wolf s in your bed.