P.M. DURING VERSES

```
         C                                          G
Verse 1: Everyone has a heart that s burning for more
                                                 Am
A greater need than this world could ever afford
                                                   F
And You are the one that we ve been searching for, we ve been searching for.
C                  G                         Am           F
Nothing satisfies like the love that I have found in You alone
                      C     G     Am             F
CHORUS: All I need is Youuuuuuuuuuu, all I need is, all I need is
C      G     Am             F
Youuuuuuuuuuuu, all I need is, all I need is.
         C                                        G
VERSE 2: When I m far and my heart feels out of reach
                                    Am
I believe that Your grace is the remedy
                                                 F
And You hold me close and make it plain to see, make it plain to see
C                        G                  Am                  F
You re always by my side, love I can t deny, truth I ve never known.

CHORUS
C                 G                          Am            F
Nothing satisfies like the love that I have found in You alone.
C                        G                  Am                 F
You re always by my side, love I can t deny, truth I ve never known.

CHORUS
C                 G                          Am            F
Nothing satisfies like the love that I have found in You alone.
C                        G                  Am                 F
You re always by my side, love I can t deny, truth I ve never known.
