I wake up, my shoulders cold
I ve got to leave here, before I go
I pull my shirt on, walk out the door
Drag my feet along the floor
I pull my shirt on, walk out the door
Drag my feet along the floor

         A         E                    Bm       D
Then I see you, you re walking  cross the campus
A                  E       Bm    D
Cruel professor studying romances

  A                       E  D
How am I supposed to pretend
   A                      E  D
I never want to see you again
    A                      E D
How am I supposed to pretend
    A                       E D
I never want to see you again
```

Verso: Riff
```
Walked to class, in front of ya
Spilled kefir on your keffiyeh
You look inside and turn to the door
Drag your feet along the floor

         A         E                    Bm       D
Then I see you, you re walking  cross the campus
A                  E       Bm    D
Cruel professor studying romances

  A                       E  D
How am I supposed to pretend
   A                      E  D
I never want to see you again
    A                      E  D
How am I supposed to pretend
```

    A                       E  D
I never want to see you again

In the afternoon, you re out on the stone and grass
And I m sleeping on the balcony after class
In the afternoon, you re out on the stone and grass
And I m sleeping on the balcony after class

In the afternoon, you re out on the stone and grass
And I m sleeping on the balcony after class
