I ve heard tell of millionaires and billionaires and such
    D                   A                    G
Who gathered all their treasures and still did not have enough
   D               A                 G
If money could buy peace of mind, I guess they d have it all
    D             A                   G                 A
But all the money in the world won?t hold you when you fall

                    G     A       D            G         A        D
We ve got a roof over our head and the kids have all been fed
        G            D                  E7             G
And the women I love most lies close beside me in our bed
G                 D                              G
Lord, give me the eyes to see exactly what it s worth
    G             A              D
And I will be the richest man on earth

Lord, when I wish I had the things that you gave someone else
I pray that you ll forgive me for just thinkin  of myself
I haven t been as thankful as I know I ought to be
I should be more then satisfied with all you ve given me
