Tab by Kirk

====

I was looking for a bass tab for this song, and didn't have much luck finding anything close to accurate. So, I gave it a shot, for what it's worth. There are a few transitions that are a little more elaborate than what I've written here, but this will hopefully get you started.

I haven't written in hammer-ons and pull-offs, etc, partly because I have no idea how he's playing it, partly because I'm lazy, and partly because you'll end up doing it how you like, anyways!

PART 1
