Point of light Schlitz/Schuyler sung by Randy Travis

 Eb                          G#                Eb
1. There s a point when you cannot walk away
2. There s a darkness that  everyone must face
3. There are heroes whose   names we never hear

            G#                    Eb                     F7                 Bb
1. when you have to stand up     straight and tall an  mean the words you say
2. it       wants to take what s good and fair and lay it all to          waste
3. a        dedicated            army of               quiet        volun-teers

             Eb                                 G#                 Eb
1. There s a point you must decide just to   do it  cause it s right
2. And that  darkness covers                 everything in     sight
3. reaching  out to feed the hungry reaching out to save the   land

   C                  Bb               G#      Bb
1. that s when you be-come a point of light
2. until it meets a   single point of light
3. reaching out to    their fellow    men.

Eb                 G#        Eb       G#                      G#    Bb
All it takes is a point of light a ray of hope in the dar-kest night.

       Eb                        G#              Eb
If you see what s wrong and you try to make it right

G#        Eb    Bb7       G#
you will be a point of light.
