Intro:
A B E

```
E                  A              E
You can offer me a diamond-plated pearl;
E                       A             B
You can send me all the riches in the world;
E                         A          E
You can tempt me with the palaces of kings;
C#m                             B                 E     A   E
I d give  em back in a big ol  sack and keep the simple things

             A                            E
I ve got the simple things; I ve got the rain in spring,
          F#                                B
Got spicy chicken wings, and French-fried onion rings

         E            A       E
You can line me up a mile of limousines;
    E               A               B
For me it don t add up to a hill o  beans;
         E             A             E
I got no hankerin  for grabbin  your brass ring;
       C#m                            B                  E     A   E
It s crystal clear - I ll stay right here and keep the simple things

             A                     E
I ve got the summer breeze, got 16 cans of peas,
            F#                    B
A two-speed window fan when it s 93 degrees,
    E                 A                   E
So forgive me for not grabbin  your brass ring;
             C#m                      B                  E     A   E
It s crystal clear - I ll stay right here and keep the simple things
             C#m                      B                  E     A   E
It s crystal clear - I ll stay right here and keep the simple things
