Tonight`s the night
Rod Stewart

```
D                      G      D                      G
     Stay away from my window,    stay away from my back door, too.
D                    G              D                   G
    Disconnect the telephone line,   relax baby and draw that blind.
 D                               G
   Kick off your shoes,  and sit right down,
D                        G
    and loosen up that pretty French gown.
D                      G
    Let me pour you a good long drink,
D                       G
    Oh baby, don t you hesitate,  cause :

D                  G        D                     Bm
    Tonight s the night,       it s gonna be allright.
          Em                      G                  D - A
 Cause I love you girl, ain t nobody gonna stop us now

  D                      G
   Come on, angel, my heart`s on fire,
D                    G
    don t deny your man s desire.
D                        G
    You d be a fool to stop this tide,
D                                 G
    spread your wings and let me come inside,  cause:

D                  G        D                     Bm
    Tonight s the night,       it s gonna be allright.
          Em                      G                  D - A
 Cause I love you girl, ain t nobody gonna stop us now.

  D                        G
   Don t say a word, my virgin child,
D                      G
    just let your inhibitions run wild.
D                    G
    The secret is about to unfold,
D                         G
    upstairs, before the nights too old,  cause:

D                  G        D                     Bm
    Tonight s the night,       it s gonna be allright.
          Em                      G                  D - A
 Cause I love you girl, ain t nobody gonna stop us now.
