Wait For Her
Roger Waters

[Intro] A D A

```
       A
With a glass inlaid with gemstones
     A
On a pool around the evening
 D
Among the perfumed roses
         A
Wait for her

         A
With the patience of a packhorse
A
Loaded for the mountains
       D
Like a stoic, noble prince
         A
Wait for her

           A
With seven pillows laid out on the stair
    A                                  D
The scent of womens  incense fills the air
             A
Be calm, and wait for her

    A
And do not flush the sparrows
         A
That are nesting in her braids
     D
All along the barricades
         A      A A/F#
Wait for her

F#m                 D
  And if she comes soon
        | A | A   A A/F# |
Wait for her
F#m                 D
  And if she comes late
|  A  |  %  |
Wait

A
 Let her be still
```

```
     A
As a summer afternoon
  D                     |  A  |
A garden in full bloom

        A
Let her breathe in the air
        A
That is foreign to her heart
D
 Let her lips part
         A
Wait for her

A
Take her to the balcony
        A
See the moon soaked in milk
         D
Hear the rustle of her silk
         A
Wait for her

      A
Don t let your eyes alight upon
    A
The twin doves of her breast
D
 Lest they take flight
         A
Wait for her
         A      A A/F#
Wait for her

F#m                 D
  And if she comes soon
        | A | A   A A/F# |
Wait for her
F#m                 D
  And if she comes late
|  A  | E
Wait,   wait
       (break)

          A
Serve her water before wine
A
Do not touch her hand
         D                         A
Let your fingertips rest at her command

```

Speak softly as a flute would
     A
To a fearful violin
        D | A   A A/F# |
Breathe out, breathe in

 | Em | D | A | A   A A/F# |
| F#m | D | A | E |

And as the echo fades
          A
From that final fusillade
  D   A
Remember the promises you made
