dada   C# A C #a      C# A  C# A        B  G#  B  G#
D      A              F#m               E
What s love without a heart that it can teach
D      A             E
What s war without a cause
D      A            F#m         E
What s hope without humanity in need
D        A             E
What s a win without a loss

D   A     F#m                      E
  I know, I know we fight against gravity
D         A         E
But gravity s no enemy
D      A        F#m                    E
Yes, I know, I know we fight against gravity
D          A             E
  But gravity is what we need

                    D     A/C#  F#m7
It s pulling Heaven down, down, down
     E              D     A/C#  E/B
It s pulling Heaven down, down, down
    D               A/C#         F#m7            E
How could it be the gravity that holds me to the ground
                  D     A     E
Is pulling Heaven down, down, down

D         A                  F#m          E
   What s free if there s no chains to be found
D         A               E
   What s death without a cost
D         A           F#m            E
   What s truth if we keep it out of reach
D         A               E
   Who s Christ without a cross

D   A     F#m                      E
  I know, I know we fight against gravity
D         A         E
But gravity s no enemy
D      A        F#m                    E
No, I know, I know we fight against gravity

D A E
But gravity is what we need

D F#m7
Gravity found us a Savior
A E/G#
Put Him on Earth so He could save us
D A
No love, no force is greater
F#m E
Heaven meets Earth, that s the gravity of love

D A
Pulling Heaven down so look up thereâ€™s a change in the wind
F#m7 E
A revolution is about to begin, love wins
D A
Yeah, Iâ€™m talking about a holy visitation
F#m7 E
For God to come and visit, this nationâ€™s patiently waiting
D A
For Him to move like He said He would move
F#m7 E
Ready for God to do anything that He wants to
D A
The time is now to pull, if you ask me,
F#m E (back to chorus)
Iâ€™m not afraid of gravity Itâ€™s pulling Heaven down
