

Homeless Guitar
38 Special

Intro: Em D A Em 2x

Em D A Em
Well, I know how it feels to be ripped from my roots
Em D A Em
And tossed into a world unbending.
Em D A Em
Not long ago I was bitten by the truth
Em D A Em
Some folks spend their whole life pretending.
D A
Now I start each mornin with the sunlight by my side
Em D A Em
Find another highway, hitch another ride
D Em A
And I use this six-string like an archer wields his bow
C D
I believe when the arrow finds its mark

It pierces the soul.

Em G Em
Three songs for a quarter each time I open my case
Em G Em
Four chords and the voice of a good man fallen from grace
Em G D Em G
No pity for me mister, I m proud to be a drifter
C A
A long shot from bein a star
C G Am G
You know, the times ain t been easy
D F Am A9 Em
For me and my Homeless Guitar.

Em D A Em
Now I know how it feels to be judged in a glance
Em D A Em
Stripped of your pride and your passion.
Em D A Em
I only know that the rivers of the soul
Em D A Em
Run deeper than birthright or fashion.

D A
 I see you look me over, feel the weight of your stare
 Em D A Em
 I m sendin you a message but you act like you don t care.
 D Em A
 I see a ripple, a crack in your facade
 C D
 You know, it really don t matter who you think you are

 We re the same under God.

(Chorus)

Am7 C
 I thank the Lord above for the gift He s given me
 Em G
 I m richer than most men
 Em
 Got a friend in my six-string
 Am7 C
 In a world where trust ain t got no guarantee
 D
 If you ain t got a penny
 B
 Gonna sing you this song for free, yeah. Akkorde wie Chorus

(Chorus)

D A
 Oh, I use these six-strings like an archer wields his bow
 C D
 I believe when the arrow finds its mark

 It pierces the soul.

Chorus

C G Am G
 You know, the times ain t been easy
 D F Am A9 Em
 For me and my Homeless Guitar.
