        Ebm                       Cm
little orphans in the snow with nowhere to call a home
              F#         C#
start their singing...singing
         Ebm                                Cm
waiting thru the summertime to thaw your heart in wintertime
                  F#          C#
thats why their singing...singing

         Ebm     B           F#          B
waiting for a sign to turn blood into wine
     Ebm                  B            F#              C#
the sweet taste in your mouth turned bitter in its glass
Ebm  B      F#     C#    Ebm  B
F#     C#
israel... in israel   israel... in israel

            Ebm                            Cm
shattered fragments of the past meet in veins on the stained glass
            F#              C#
like the lifeline in your palm
          Ebm                           Cm
red and green reflects the scene of a long forgotten dream
             F#                      C#
there were princes and there were kings

      Ebm                         Cm
now hidden in disguise, cheap wrappings of lies F#                           C#
keep your heart alive with a song from inside

BRIDGE

      Ebm                          Cm
even tho we re all alone we are never on our own
            F#         C#
when we,re singing...singing
Ebm  B   F#  C#
ooohh   ooohh   TWICE
         Ebm                           Cm
theres a man whos looking in and he smiles a toothless grin
             F#           C#
because hes singing ...singing
       Ebm                               Cm
some people shine with glee but their song is jealousy
                F#          C#
their hate is clanging...maddening
Ebm   B              F#          C#
in israel will they sing happy noel
