Stephen Merritt and the 6ths w/Momus

Capo 2

Intro: Bb

```
Bb                            F
Let the camera linger on your perfect skin
                            Bb
Your widows peak and your lucky grin
                   Eb
And the bluest eyes I know
 Ebsus2          Bb
As you turn to go

Let there be a record of your gorgeous voice
The turn of phrase that filled my days with joy
Something like Bing singing soft and low
As you turn to go

 Eb             Bb                      F
I know I`m not supposed to say I`m sorry
 Eb               Bb                        F
I know you`ve had more loves than Mata Hari
 Eb                    Bb                        F
But you know you`re the star of my life story
                        Bb
And I`m so sorry

Let the poets struggle to describe your heart
Your art of love and your love of art
Well, if you ever loved me
Tell me so
As you turn to go
```
