Verse 1:
```
D                           A                 D
She caught the Katy, and left me a mule to ride.
D                          G                  D
She caught the Katy, and left me a mule to ride.
         D                               A
Now my baby caught the Katy, left me a mule to ride.
G                          A
The train pulled out; I swung in behind.
D                      A                     D       A
Crzy bout her, that hard-headed woman of mine

Break
        D
Well I love my baby
A
She s so fine
        G                         A
But I wish she d come home and see me some time
            D             A
She don t believe in our love
  G          A
Look what a hole I m in
     G             A
Kid look what a shape I m in
