Tabbed by - eiim (UltimateGuitar.com)

Capo 1st fret

```
E        B
After tonight,
      F#               G#m
Who knows where weâ€™ll be tomorrow
E              B           F#
What if weâ€™re never here again?

E        B
After tonight
  F#             G#m
This will be a lifetime ago
E             B              F#
So letâ€™s stay up until the sky bleeds red.

            E                 B
And weâ€™ll stop stop stop the world from moving
  F#                  G#m
Stop stop stop the clocks from turning
  E                   B       F#
Stop this night from fading away

N.B.         E
This time is ours
   B                  F#            G#m
If I could hold this moment in my hands
              E                B
Iâ€™d stop the world from moving
               F#
Iâ€™d stop the clocks from turning

N.B.          E
This time is ours
   B             F#        G#m
Inside a frozen memory of us
            E        B         F#
And we are motionless, motionless

E             B        F#             G#m
Gone like a dream that I have just awoken from
E        B                F#
Fading away, just out of reach
```

```
E           B    F#        G#m
And we are here, but I already miss you
E               B             F#
Even as youâ€™re lying next to me

           E                  B
And weâ€™ll stop stop stop the world from moving
  F#                  G#m
Stop stop stop the clocks from turning
  E                   B       F#
Stop this night from fading away

N.C.         E
This time is ours
   B                  F#            G#m
If I could hold this moment in my hands
              E                B
Iâ€™d stop the world from moving
               F#
Iâ€™d stop the clocks from turning

N.C.          E
This time is ours
   B             F#        G#m
Inside a frozen memory of us
            E        B         F#
And we are motionless, motionless
            E        B         F#
And we are motionless, motionless
            E        B         F#
And we are motionless, motionless

           E                  B
And weâ€™ll stop stop stop the world from moving
  F#                  G#m
Stop stop stop the clocks from turning
  E                   B       F#
Stop this night from fading away

N.C.         E
This time is ours
   B                  F#            G#m
If I could hold this moment in my hands
              E                B
Iâ€™d stop the world from moving
               F#
Iâ€™d stop the clocks from turning

N.C.          E
This time is ours
   B             F#        G#m
Inside a frozen memory of us
            E        B         F#
```

And we are motionless, motionless
N.C. E B F#
This time is ours (x5 while fading out)

(If you like you can end with an G#m)
