You Still Want Me
The Kinks

```
E                   G     A           B
When you passed me by,    you didn t look my way.
E               G        A            B
But one thing I know,     our love is here to stay.

A             B
And you still want me
And you still want me.

E              G      A               B
You wanted the sky,    but I couldn t reach so high.
E             G       A                   B
I gave you my love,    but you found some other guy.

A             B
And you still want me
And you still want me;  I know because the smile that s on your

E           C#M     F#7
lips is for me.     They were meant for me to kiss, and B7
you were meant to love me darling.
E          G     A           B
I ll be around    when other guys have gone.
E                  G     A            B
I ll tell you once more   how I still love you so.

A             B
And you still want me
And you still want me;  I know because the smile that s on your

E           C#M      F#7
lips is for me.      They were meant for me to kiss, and B7
you were meant to love me darling.

I ll be around when other guys have gone
I ll tell you once more, how I still love you so

And you still want me (3x)
