Higher Than The Stars
The Pains of Being Pure at Heart

So here are the chords for this beautiful song by TPOBPAH, remember to put a capo on the 4th fret, standard tuning. The strumming pattern is really easy, figure it out while listening to the guitar in the song.

C                        G                           F
Shitfaced, fumbling in a dark place, drinking in the last days
C                                G                           F
this street looks just like the next street, bumblefuck on repeat
C                                      G
this time you should have stopped but where s the fun?
                             F
you should have stopped but where s the fun?
C                                 G                                F
the outcome, the only friend you ever had is setting off with a rich son

C                      G                       F
so sure she was like a brother til you dropped another
C                         G                           F
so sure you kept it under covers, until you knew you loved her

Dm                  F                            C
now you can t think straight, because you re not straight G                                Dm
in the back of her mother s car, in the back of her mother s car
                F                      C     G
no secret s too safe, and how you just can t stay
higher than the stars.
