Dean "the machine"

Talks with his biceps

Thinks he's so sweet

As he puts in his reps

Thinks he's a dream

Flexing his triceps

And then he said that she

Is super into me

He really sees

What's on the inside

He's no machine

Just another big guy

Maybe he dreams

That there's more to this life

He's only second string

Of the JV team

He's only 23

Looking for what love means

F#

I'd like to conclude

E

The moral to the story

F#

Whether you're a big dude

E

Or whether your name's Lori
