The Rolling Stones

Intro(G C G C D C)

```
G                  C
Some girls give me money
G                 C
Some girls buy me clothes
G                    C
Some girls give me jewelry
       D                 C
That I never thought I d own
G                    C
Some girls give me diamonds
G                    C
Some girls, heart attacks
G                           C
Some girls I give all my bread to
D                      C       G C G C G C D C
I don t ever want it back
G                     C
Some girls give me jewelry
G               C
Others buy me clothes
G                     C
Some girls give me children
D                   C       G C G C G C D C
I never asked them for
G                    D
So give me all your money
G                 D
Give me all your gold
       G                            D
I ll buy you a house back in Zuma beach
      C                     D
And give you half of what I own
G                   C
Some girls take my money
G                    C
Some girls take my clothes
G                      C
Some girls get the shirt off my back
   D                         C    G C G C G C D C
And leave me with a lethal dose
G                      C
French girls they want Cartier
G                 C
Italian girls want cars
G                                 C
```

```
American girls want everything in the world
     D                 C
You can possibly imagine
G                        C
English girls they re so prissy
          G                     C
I can t stand them on the telephone
G                          C
Sometimes I take the receiver off the hook
       D                           C    G C G C G C D C
I don t want them to ever call at all
G                            C
White girls they re pretty funny
G                        C
Sometimes they drive me mad
G                              C
Black girls just wanna get fucked all night
D                              C
I just don t have that much jam
G                     C
Chinese girls are so gentle
G                      C
They re really such a tease
G                                  C
You never know quite what they re cookin
D                      C
Inside those silky sleeves
G                D
Give me all you money
G                 D
Give me all your gold
      G                            D
I ll buy you a house back in Zuma beach
      C                      D
And give you half of what I own
G     C                        G       C   G C D C
Yeah baby why don t you please come home
G                     C
Some girls they re so pure
G                 C
Some girls so corrupt
G                    C
Some girls give me children
D                          C
I only made love to her once
G                   C
Give me half your money
G                C
Give me half your car
G                     C
Give me half of everything
              D                  C
I ll make you world s biggest star
```

G C
So gimme all your money
G C
Give me all your gold
G
Let s go back to Zuma beach
C D C G C G C G C D C G
I ll give you half of everything I own
