No Man Can Find The War
(Beckett/Buckley)

TIM BUCKLEY
From Goodbye And Hello, 1967

(like much of this album, capoed at the first fret)

Intro:
Dm / / / F / / / G / / / Bb / / / Dm

(C#m)
Photographs of guns and flame
E F#
Scarlet skull and distant game
A C#m
Bayonet and jungle grin
(C#m)
Nightmares dreamed by bleeding men
E F#
Lookouts tremble on the shore
A C#m
But no man can find the war

Tape recorders echo scream
Orders fly like bullets stream
Drums and cannons laugh aloud
Whistles come from ashen shroud
Leaders damn the world and roar
But no man can find the war

F# E
Is the war across the sea?
A F#
Is the war behind the sky?
Eb F# E
Have you each and all gone blind?
A C#m
Is the war inside your mind?

Humans weep at human death

All the talkers lose their breath
Movies paint a choas tale
Singers see and poets wail
All the world knows the score
But no man can find the war
