A Car A Torch A Death
twenty one pilots

One of my favorite songs ever by probably my favorite band. I figured it out on piano then transcribed it to guitar. Please rate and/or comment!

Capo on 3rd

You might want to mute the high e throughout the song, personal preference tho

[Verse]
    F                              C
The air begins to feel a little thin
     Am                            G
As I start the car and then I begin
   F                          C
To add the miles piled up behind me
  Am                            G
I barely feel a smile deep inside me

      F                                  C
And I begin to envy the headlights driving south
          Am                               G
I want to crack the door so I can just fall out
     F                                 C
But then I remember when you packed my car
    Am                                   G
You reached in the back and bucked up your heart
    F     C     Am   G
For me to drive away with

[Chorus]
  F        C        Am
I began to understand
   G         F
Why God died

F C Am G
[2x]

[Verse]
    F                             C
The demon sat there waiting on her porch
         Am                               G
It was a little dark so we held a makeshift torch
    F                            C

And when my car was far out of sight
Am G
He crept in her room and stayed there for the night

F
And then I felt chills in my bones
C
The breath I saw was not my own
Am
I knew my skin that wrapped my frame
G
Wasn t made to play this game
F
And then I saw Him, torch in hand
C
He laid it out, what he had planned
Am
And then I said, I ll take the grave
G
Please, just send them all my way
[2x]

F C Am G

[Chorus]
F C Am
I began to understand
G
Why God died

F C Am G
[2x]

[Outro]
F C
The air begins to feel a little thin
Am G
As we re waiting for the morning to begin
F C
But for now you told me to hold this jar
Am
And when I looked inside, I saw
G
It held your heart

F C Am G
For me to walk away with
F C Am
I began to understand
G
Why God died
