Apples And Cinnamon
Utada Hikaru

```
  C#add9   C#min   B          A
Tell me what is on your mind
 C#add9   C#min   B          A
Help me,  cause I d like to know
 C#add9   C#min   B          A
What the hell is going on?
 C#add9   C#min   B          A
Never thought I d sing this song

 C#add9   C#min                        F#11
Let s not get started with the he said, she said
    A                            F#
Sometimes it just doesn t go on as planned
 C#add9   C#min                        F#11
Let s not get started with the he said, she said
    A                            F#
Sometimes it just doesn t go on as planned

                         C# add9
Started out so simple and innocent
                 F#11                            A
     F#
So simple and innocent, so simple and innocent, so simple and innocent
                       C# add9
Chemistry like apple and cinnamon
                   F#11                                A
       F#
Like apple and cinnamon, like apple and cinnamon, like apple and cinnamon

                C# add9                        F#11
I can t believe that you and me were falling out of love
            A                              F#
And that everybody used to be so envious of us
             C# add9
(Chemistry like apple and cinnamon)
         F#11                 A
What we had was just too good
       F#
Good to last

     C# add9        B          A
Happiness don t last that long
     C# add9        B         A
But what we had was beautiful

 C#add9   C#min                        F#11
Let s not get started with the he said, she said
```

```
    A                           F#
Sometimes it just doesn t go on as planned
 C#add9   C#min                        F#11
Let s not get started with the he said, she said
    A                           F#
Sometimes it just doesn t go on as planned

                         C# add9
Started out so simple and innocent
                 F#11                            A
     F#
So simple and innocent, so simple and innocent, so simple and innocent
                        C# add9
Chemistry like apple and cinnamon
                   F#11                                A
       F#
Like apple and cinnamon, like apple and cinnamon, like apple and cinnamon

                C# add9                         F#11
I can t believe that you and me were falling out of love
            A                               F#
And that everybody used to be so envious of us
             C# add9
(Chemistry like apple and cinnamon)
         F#11                 A
What we had was just too good
       F#
Good to last

       C# add9                           B       A
Please don t look at me like that, oh
        C# add9                        B                           A      F#
Please don t look at me, don t look at me like that, oh

       C# add9                        B      A
You can t look at me like that, aah
       C# add9                        B                           A      F#
Please don t look at me, don t look at me like that, oh

          C# add9                                     F# 11
I can t believe that you and me were falling out of love
                A                                     F#
And that everybody used to be so envious of us
          C# add9
(Chemistry like apple and cinnamon)
      F# 11           A                         F#
What we had was just too good

                         C# add9
Started out so simple and innocent
                 F#11                            A
     F#
So simple and innocent, so simple and innocent, so simple and innocent
```

```
                        C# add9
Chemistry like apple and cinnamon
                    F#11                                A
       F#
Like apple and cinnamon, like apple and cinnamon, like apple and cinnamon

                C# add9                         F#11
I can t believe that you and me were falling out of love
            A                                F#
And that everybody used to be so envious of us
             C# add9
(Chemistry like apple and cinnamon)
         F#11                 A
What we had was just too good
       F#
Good to last
