Am
They would yell, they would scream, they were fighting it out
F
She would hope, she would pray, she was waiting it out
G F
Holding on to a dream, while she watches theses walls fall down

Am
Sharp words like knives, they were cutting her down
F
Shattered glass like the past it s a memory now
G F
Holding on to a dream, while she watches theses walls fall down

C G
Hey mum, hey dad, when did this end?
Am
When did you lose your happiness?
F
I m here alone inside of this broken home
C G
Who s right, who s wrong, who really cares?
Am
The fault, the blame, the pain s still there

F

I m here alone inside of this broken home

Am

This broken home

Am

F

Wrote it down on the walls, she was screaming it out

G

Made it clear, she s still here, are you listening out

F

Just a ghost in the halls feeling empty, they re vacant now

Am

F

All the battles, all the wars, all the time that you fought

G

She s the scar, she s the bruises she s the pain that you brought

F

There was life, there was love like a light and it s fading out

C

G

Hey mum, hey dad, when did this end?

Am

This broken home

Am

You ve gotta let it go

F

You re losing all your hope

Nothing left to hold

G

Locked out in the cold

Am

You painted memories

F

Then washed out all the scenes

C

I m stuck in between

G

A nightmare and lost dreams

C

G

Hey mum, hey dad, when did this end?
