I wonder how a mother survives when her son dies during the war
F#m A E Bm D E
She must be proud of him but she breaks down and cries

F#m A E F#m D E
I wonder how a mother decides to give birth to a new child of this folk
F#m A E Bm D E
It should be deed of honour but she leaves him alone

Bm Gadd9 Bm A
No, I ll be a new mother for new children

F#m A E F#m D E
I wonder how a mother prevents her son to learn the art of combat
F#m A E Bm D E
It is the soldier s duty! But she leaves him no space

F#m A E F#m D E
I wonder how a mother asserts that her son was accident of love
F#m A E Bm D E
â€˜cause when he was born/ she thought that she was free no more

F#m A E F#m D E
These days a modern mother does not embody the image of safe Earth
F#m A E Bm D E
She doesn t want to hear She doesn t want to embrace

F#m A E F#m D E
No, I ll be a new mother My son will grow and will fight as I ll have taught
F#m A E Bm D E
My girl will find her love and later she will become

Bm Gadd9 Bm A
She will be a new mother for new children
