Play the intro during verse

Life s a tangled web of cell phone calls
And hashtag I-don t-knows
And you
You re so caught up
In all the blinking lights and dial tones

I admit I m a bit of a victim
In the worldwide system too
But I found my sweet escape
When I m alone with you

Tune out the static sound
Of the city that never sleeps
Here in the moment
On the dark side of the screen

G#4(6)
I like the Summer rain
A/E
I like the sounds you make
G/D
We put the world away

We get so disconnected

G#4(6)

You are my getaway

A/E

You are my favorite place

G/D

We put the world away

Yeah, we re so disconnected

Verse 2

Hands around my waist

You re counting up the hills

Across the sheets

And I m a fallin star

A glimmer lighting

Up these cotton streets

I admit I m a bit of fool

For playing by the rules

But I ve found my sweet escape

When I m alone with you

Tune out the static sound

Of the city that never sleeps

Here in the moment

On the dark side of the screen

G#4(6)

I like the Summer rain

I like the sounds you make
